

wedding photography

As your wedding is individual to you, so should your wedding photography! Phil offers a flexible system to give you maximum choice.

If you want just a disk with the images on that is fine. If you'd love an album Phil has a great range of styles & sizes. And all albums are designed using a set of proofs so you'll have a print of every picture from your wedding.

attendance fee

The attendance fee of £295 is taken as a non-refundable deposit and is payable when you book. Attendance at home, reception and locations in between are included. There is a £45 reduction for a weekday weddings. There is nothing else to pay until you've seen the pictures.

'expressions' contemporary album

The superb Expressions magazine style album is available in 17 stunning styles & 3 sizes and is designed according to your instructions. Pages can have simple layouts that let the pictures shine out through to artistic arrangements that tell the story of your wedding. Made by craftsmen in the UK, the stylish flush-mounted pages are book bound so the album lies elegantly flat.

After your wedding you plan the layout of your album together with Phil, then give the final design your approval before the album is created.

These albums range from £728 (A4) to £1154 (A3) including 20 pages with extra pairs of pages from £25. A5 sized parents' copy albums are from £201 for 2 (but can only be ordered with main album).

classic albums

Phil's relaxed style photographs are available in 3 sizes depending on your choice of album. Keeping it simple the prices are per album page, not per photograph. There is a minimum of 10 pages.

8" Album from £252 - extra pages from £18 (up to 2 pictures on a page)

10" Album from £324 - extra pages from £24 (up to 4 pictures on a page)

'A3' Album from £544 - extra pages are £34 (up to 6 pictures on a page)

Phil uses the finest UK made albums, available in 16 styles & many colours, all handmade and ordered especially for you. Prices range from £72 to £348. As a finishing touch a calligrapher will complete the title page for £10. Parents' albums start from £145.

disk

Your photographs can be supplied on disk with reproduction rights for £600. If bought with an album the disk is discounted to £350. The files will be in .jpg format fully corrected for colour & density, ready to use. You also have the option of having the original 'raw' files. If you know you would like a disk please let Phil know before the wedding so your pictures can be worked on while you are away on honeymoon. You will then have them sooner!

A slide show of the un-retouched pictures is £50 with copyright reserved.
